Council Lights 'Em Up All Year

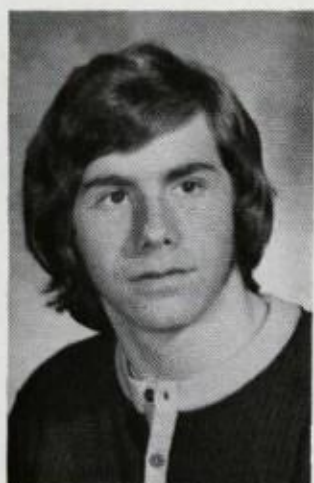

Executive Council resumed its traditional Tuesday meetings during 6th period with a busy schedule.

The Grievance Procedure received special attention with regular committee meetings as did All-City Senate.

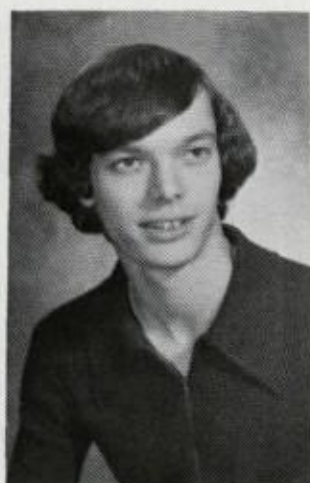

The Council developed closer relations through club representatives and hard working committee chairmen.

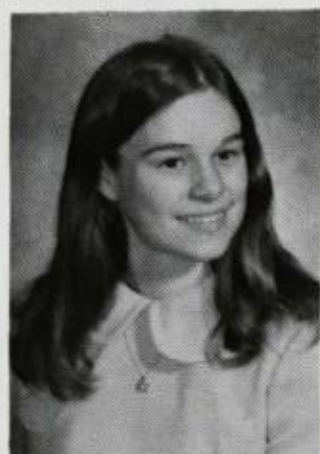

Cindy Lenay, corresponding secretary and Theresa O'Brien, recording secretary, take a few minutes from their duties to voice their opinions during a meeting.

This year's All-City Senate consisted of Shelley Judd, junior, Sharon Kozai, sophomore and Paul Lukes, senior. They met every Tuesday at the Administrative Services Center in order to become aware of and try to solve school related problems.

Song and Yell Leaders

Mrs. Margaret Hakola
Summer/Fall Advisor

The 1972-73 Song and Yell Leaders sparked Lincoln's spirit with their cheering and performances. The group worked hard on creating and perfecting routines all year.

Lincoln hosted the Jamboree Tea held for all of the North Metro Song and Yell squads.

After advising for 12 years, Mrs. Margaret Hakola resigned, and Mrs. Alice Savitch and Dr. Mary Carson replaced her.

TRI-F DAY

The Fall Football Festival, Lincoln's annual homecoming celebration, saw the school carry out the Fifties theme to a great extent. Most students took part in dressing to "the tune of 1955," in remembrance of the year and majority of Lincoln's graduating class were born. The highlights of Tri-F Day included the assembly in the morning and a dance Friday night. Saturday morning started out with decorated houses for the football players. The day ended with the football game against Ballard.

With the help of their enthusiastic officers, the class of '75 raised money for their class by having a flower sale at the beginning of the year. A soph-frosh dance was another of the many activities the sophomores sponsored.

As this year ends, the sophomores can look back on their accomplishments, and look forward with anticipation to another two years at Lincoln.

Class of 1974

The Class of '74 showed their spirit throughout the entire year. Their activities started out early, with a bake sale on the first day of school. Other activities were a car wash in the rain, selling hot dogs at the wrestling matches and basketball games, and a class ski trip. Overall, it was a good year for Lincoln's Class of '74.

The football team showed marked improvement in 1972 as they accomplished a feat unmatched since 1969: they won two games.

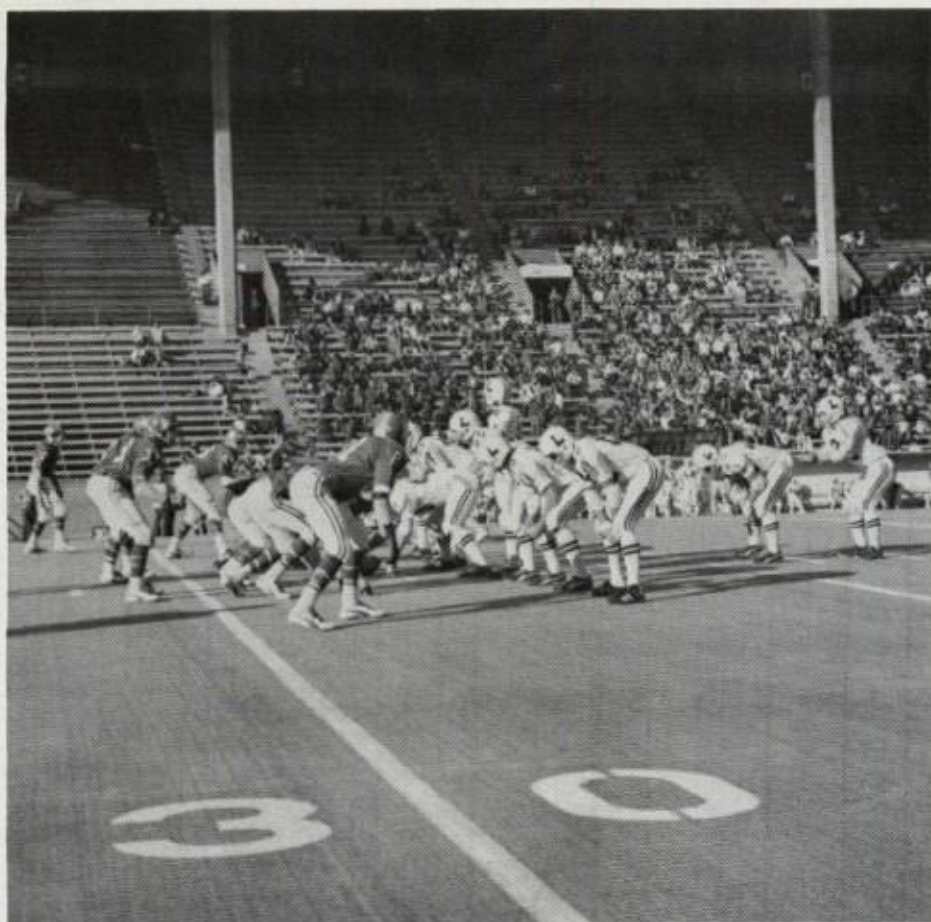

The Lynx played an exciting brand of football as they were able to give some of the league's toughest teams a real battle, losing 14-7 to Roosevelt, 22-16 to Shoreline, and 24-7 to Nathan Hale. Perhaps the hardest defeat to take was their 14-12 loss to Rainier Beach, which wasn't decided until the last play of the game.

But the season was not without bright spots as Lincoln defeated a strong Cleveland team, 31-7, and squeaked past Shorecrest, 6-0, in the mud at Shoreline Stadium.

Individual standouts were Denis Monica, team captain, Seattle TIMES All-Metro team Linebacker. Dave Woodhouse was named second-team center on the Seattle P-I's All-Metro team. Jim Ferry, who led the league in kickoff return yardage, and scored seven touchdowns, was named the team's Most Valuable Player and Willie Beasley, a hard-running fullback, was elected the team's Most Inspirational Player.

Dave Woodhouse (00) and Dale Robbins (82) watch Willie Beasley crawl for every inch he can get against Roosevelt.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Lincoln's junior varsity and sophomore-freshman football squads experienced a mixture of success and disappointment in 1972.

The jayvees, composed of players who saw limited action in varsity games, enjoyed their first winning season in many years with a 3-2 record. All of their victories came at home as they defeated Nathan Hale, Shoreline, and Ballard.

The third team had a different kind of season, losing each of their seven games. The team didn't even have a full-time coach until two games had been played, but the many talented freshmen on the team will be back next year to improve their record.

VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY

With a look of determination, Gary Albright gets off to a good start against West Seattle.

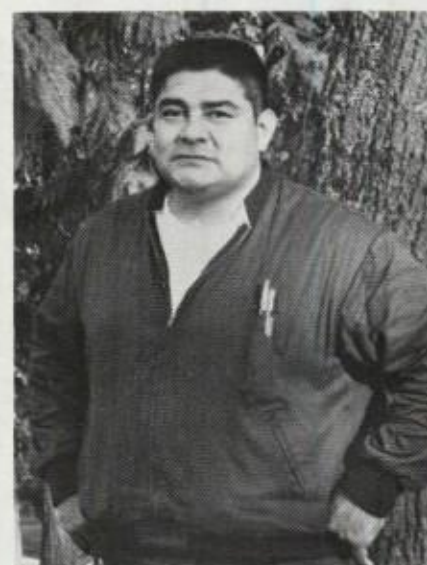

The 1972 Lincoln cross-country squad finished in fine fashion in the always-competitive Metro League. The harriers placed fourth in the northern division, behind Nathan Hale, Shoreline, and Ingraham, and were fifth in overall league standings.

The Lynx were paced this year by juniors George Frick and Tim Dupont, and also contributing to the all-out team effort were seniors, Brian Horman, Gary Hocking, and Gary Albright.

Varsity letters were also awarded to Gillis Heller, George Anderson, Kurt Smith, and Don Horman. The team also awarded varsity letters to head manager, Tom Smith, who was unable to run because of eligibility problems, and time-keepers, Heather Machaness and Linda Sheeley.

At the annual cross-country banquet, team members voted Brian Horman in as this year's most inspirational runner and also voted Brian and Gary Hocking as the squads co-captains for the '72 season.

Junior harrier George Frick was the lone Lincoln runner to compete in state competition.

Junior Varsity Cross Country

Coach Townsend instructs the runners before a junior varsity tri-meet.

The Junior Varsity team suffered a rough year going 2-11 for the regular season and a disappointing 10th in the All Metro Meet. But through gaining needed experience and a year of big improvement, the JV's are looking to be strong contenders in 1973.

VOLLEYBALL

This year for the first time volleyball had boys on the team. However, the boys did not play in varsity games because no other school had a boys team. The girls fared poorly winning only 2 games out of ten during the season and sixth in the North. But with volleyball becoming a varsity sport and with 5 returning lettermen they hope to do better in 1973.

Varsity Wrestlers
J.V. Wrestlers

Lincoln's wrestling team continued the pattern of success established by last season's team by winning all of its dual meets to keep a 26-match winning streak alive. The grapplers also won the Metro League wrestling tournament by an overwhelming margin, sending 12 of the team's 13 wrestlers to the Region II meet held at Lincoln. Steve James, Brian Klukas, Jim Roma, and Windell Williams represented the Lynx at the state tournament.

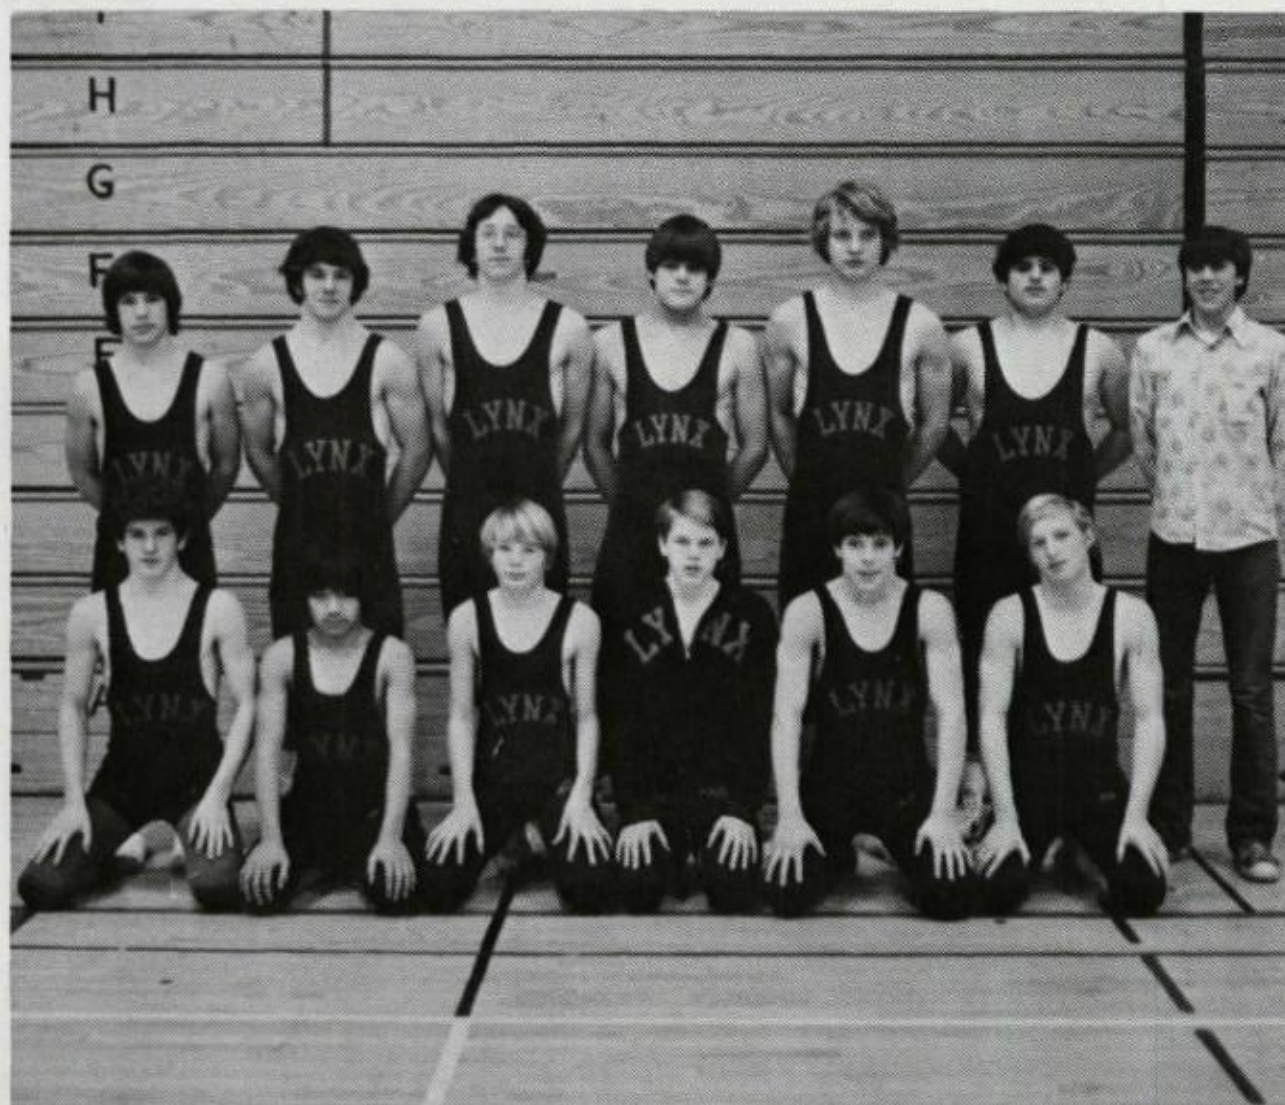

Few of Lincoln's regular-season matches were close as the squad demolished its Metro foes until the last match of the season. Shoreline and the Lynx clashed for the league title before 1700 fans in the Lincoln gym as Lincoln pulled out a 32-22 victory, with Dave Woodhouse and Williams pinning their opponents to secure the victory and the championship trophy.

Bill Melnik makes a dash for the ball while Jim Safioles readies himself to assist.

Peter Garlid stands ready to defend the Lincoln goal from the Ballard team corner kick.

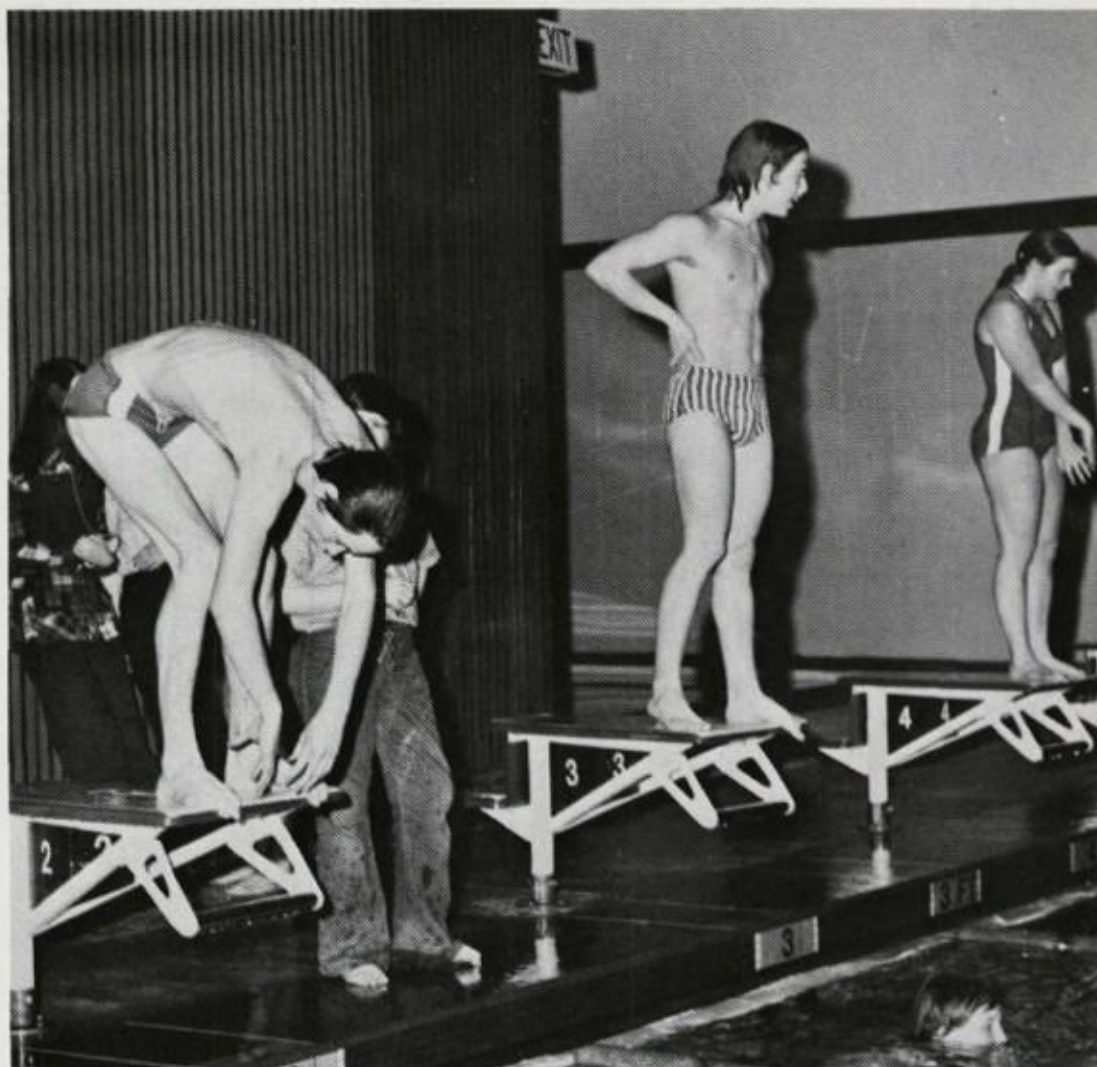

Dave Christensen strides towards the ball, to get it to his teammates.

Steve Braun "heads" the pass to Marco deOliveira in a game at Memorial while Dave Christensen stands ready.

Carol Kobuke awaits the gun before swimming her way to fourth in Metro.

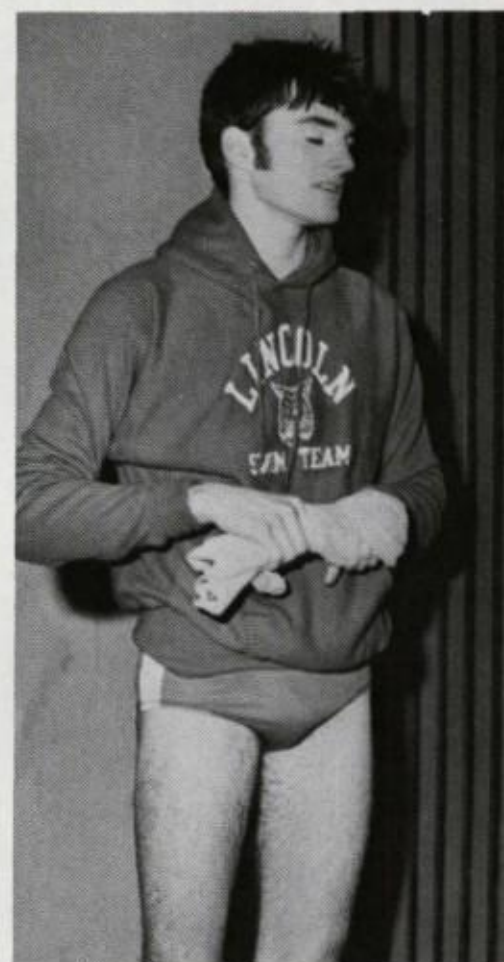

Lloyd Hartsock and Jo Beste prepare to go against a Ballard opponent.

SWIMMING

In swimming's first year as a letter sport the team faired well. They have plenty of young members who will return next year. In the Metro finals, Carol Kobuke placed fourth. Jo Beste and Bruce Cheadle were team co-captains.

Bruce Cheadle rests up after taking two firsts against Franklin.

GIRLS ARE FIRST IN NORTH

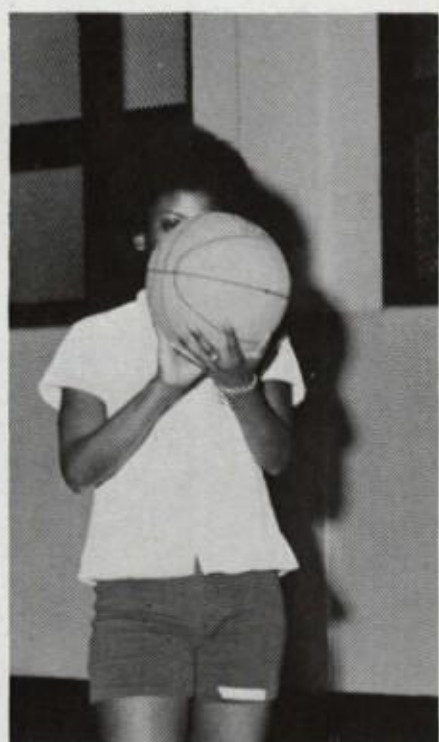

Coach-Lenard Tanner

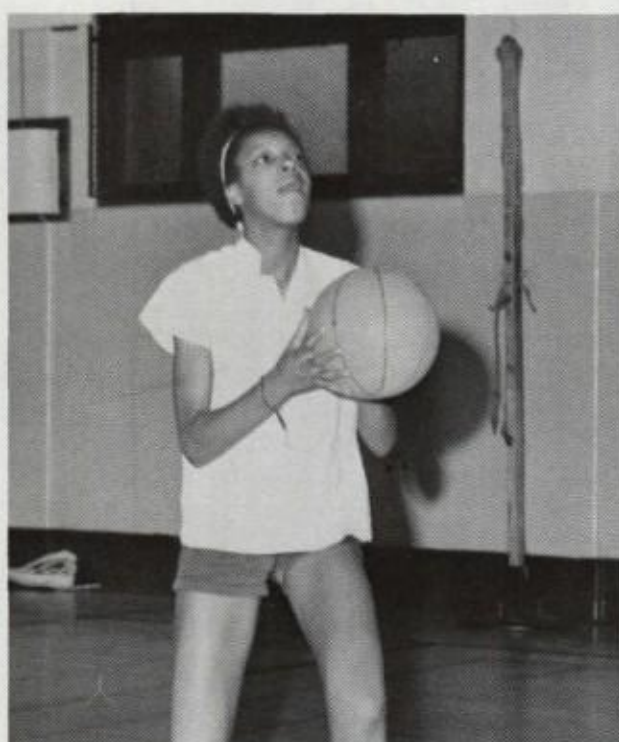

After capturing the Northern Division championship, Lincoln's girls basketball team lost to Garfield in the Metro League playoffs. But the Lynx finished high in their first year of competition. They compiled a record of four wins against only one loss. There were eighteen girls on the team.

Judy Braxton checks out her grip.

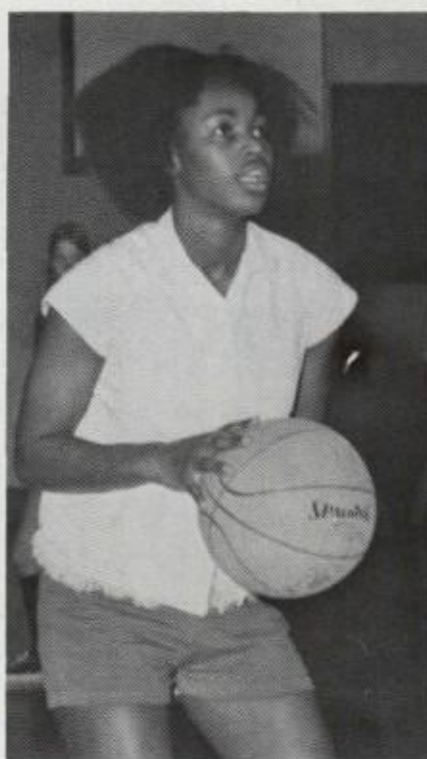

Wandra Baucham aims for the basket.

Kylin Parks tries the uneven parallel bars while Mrs. Robare and Donna Kearn spot for her.

GYMNASTICS

This year's gymnastic team finished with a respectable record of five wins against seven losses. Out of twelve members, the team sent two to state with Brenda Putnam taking twelfth out of eighty-one participants in the vaulting event. The team elected Cheryl Alexander and Brenda Putnam co-captains.

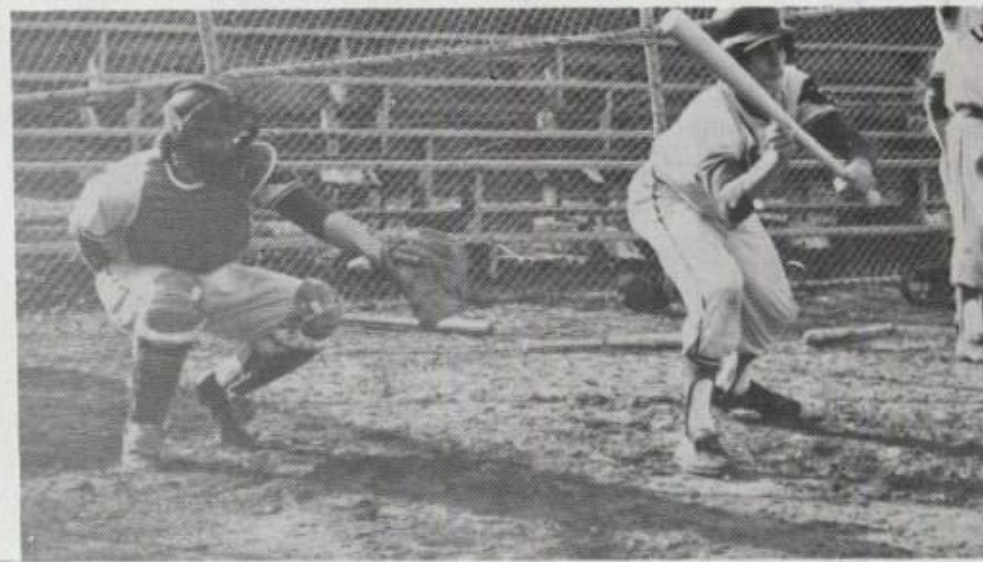

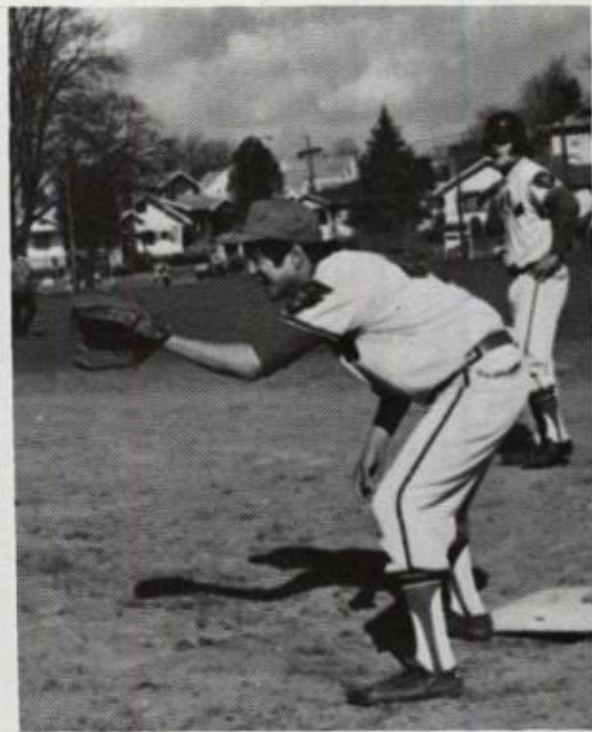

Coach-Judy Robare

Brenda Putnam flies over the vault with perfect form.

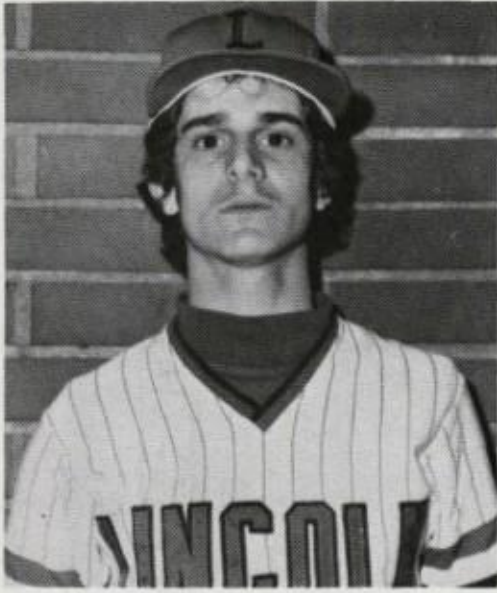

Karen Erdahl practices her routine of the floor exercises.

VARSITY TRACK

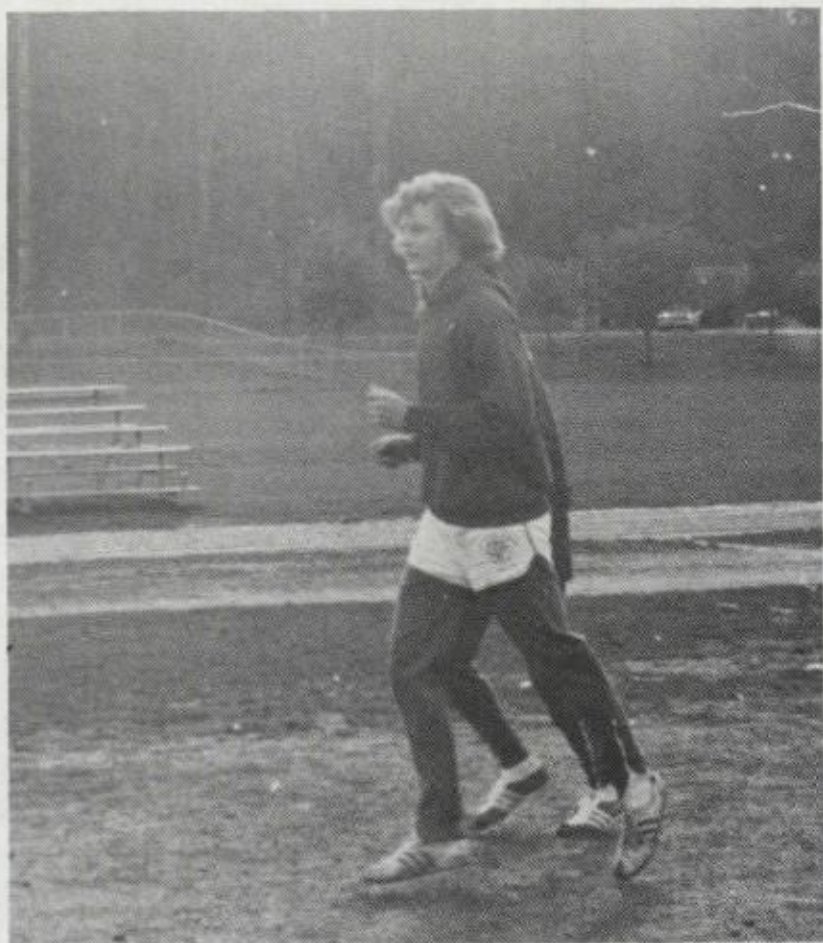

Left to Right; Coaches: Dale Baskett, Gary Baskett, Bernard Baptiste, and Gary Prout.

The boy's track team was still looking for their first win of the season against Shorecrest. The track men suffered many untimely injuries to key performers which kept them out of the 1973 running. However, the team did gain a lot of experience and is looking forward to a higher finish next year.

Scott Gregerson warms up.

Coach Prout leads his runners.

Hurdlers: Gordon Wang, Paul Gee, Dave Sato, and Mike Nealey.

Coach Baptiste instructs his runners.

The distance team works out on the track.

TENNIS 1973

Lincoln's tennis team, starting the 1973 season with three straight wins, hoped to defeat Roosevelt and Nathan Hale later in the season to win the Metro League's Northern Division.

The Lynx were led by 1972's state tennis champion Pete Meade who hoped to make it two titles in a row at Yakima over the Memorial Day weekend.

Other returning lettermen were Frank Shaw, senior, No. 6; and Gary Reid, junior, No. 2.

CLASS OF '73

'73, A YEAR TO REMEMBER

The Senior class devoted much of its energies towards the grand finale of the prom, cruise, and graduation. In so doing, they saw some innovative money-making projects; ugly men and pig kissing, as well as the usual senior pin and mistletoe sales.

Seniors proved to Lincoln that they had the "biggest heart" while helping Neighbors in Need with effort in the canned food drive, bringing in 1,326 cans.

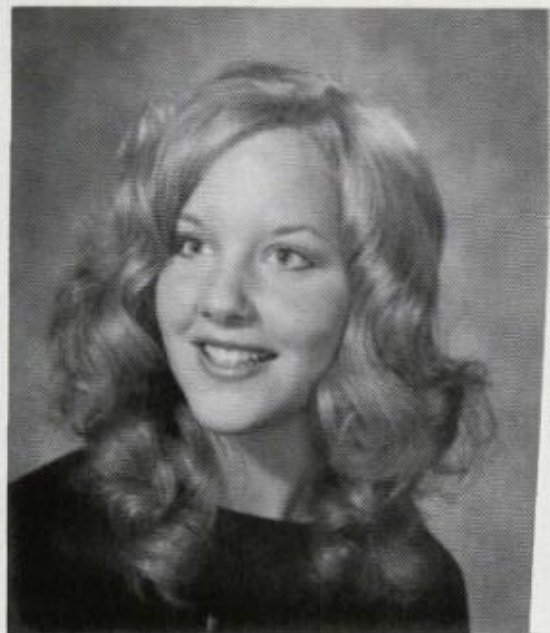

Seniors went all out in making Tri-F Day a success by portraying students from the Class of '55. The "Greasers" never looked better! Seniors helped celebrate T-Day with spirit this year by honoring their own Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln.

The coming of Senior Week made seniors realize that their year was soon to end. With this thought seniors made their week enjoyable.

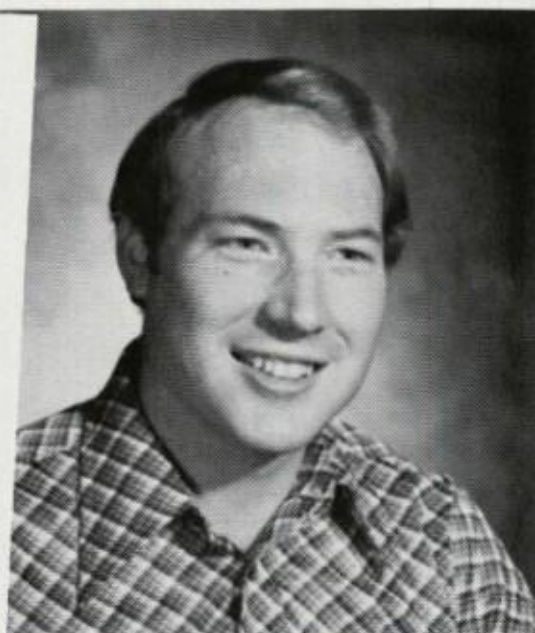

The climax of the Seniors' year began with the cruise on the Sightseer followed by a dinner and dance. The Prom, held at the Nile Country Club, was enjoyed by all. Commencement brings the year to a close, and with it, the seniors stop to reflect on all that they have done this past year; a year to remember.

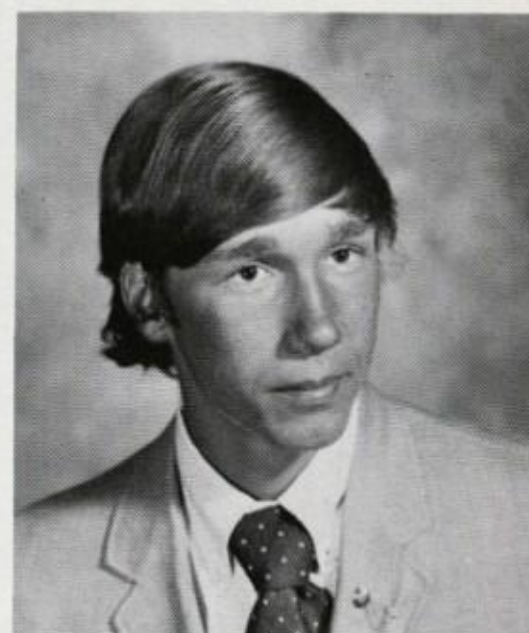

Senior Cabinet discuss plans for upcoming activities.

TOTEM Annual Staff dedicates the 1973 yearbook to Mr. Jack Lattin, advisor. We are fortunate to have had his hard work, dependability, and guidance behind us on his last annual, as 15 years of service have failed to slow him down or dampen his enthusiasm. As Mr. Lattin leaves the post of annual advisor, we thank him for his aid and wish him luck in the years to come.

Dear Anna - Since my picture didn't make it to the annual
I can pick my page. It's been a good year & good to have you around. Have a happy summer. See you next year.
